TLC OFFERING

ELIMINATION OF BIAS CLE

After having presented at nearly 100 CLEs since opening our doors in 2002, TLC has recently been Certified by the State Bar to present a one-hour elimination of bias class:

An Industry in Transition: Making Legal Workplaces Safe for Transgender Employees

Despite a steady evolution in state and federal anti-discrimination law, alienation of transgender people from the workforce continues at alarming rates. Anecdotal evidence suggests that the legal profession is as big an offender as any other industry. This fun, interactive workshop provides participants with accessible information about transgender employees and common sense suggestions for making any workplace transgender-friendly.

Scheduling an in-service for your organization or firm

Non-profit legal organizations

Thanks to generous support from our funders, TLC can provide this class as an in-service workshop free of charge to San Francisco and Alameda County organizations. Organizations based outside of these counties can schedule a free workshop, but will need to cover travel expenses.

Law firms and associations

TLC is happy to present this workshop at law firms and associations for a fee. The one-hour workshop can be provided to Bay Area firms and associations for $250.¹ Firms and associations outside of the Bay Area will need to cover any reasonable travel costs in addition to the workshop fee.

For more information about scheduling, contact TLC Director, Christopher Daley at (415) 865-0176 or chris@transgenderlawcenter.org

¹ Some firms and associations will qualify for a sliding scale fee.
